Greatest of Care

Should be Exercised With The Eyes.

Many cases have come to my notice where people have been duped by men here today and somewhere else tomorrow, which fact leads me to advise all persons needing attention given to the eyes to submit their case to the resident Eye Specialist, who is known to all and who is here all the time to look after all his cases.

Very Respectfully,

J. T. Johnson.

OSMENT TRIES LEG BAIL,
But is Captured and Landed Securely in Jail.

At the conclusion of the trial of George Osment in Squire Eddies court yesterday afternoon there was an exciting chase. Osment is charged with assisting in the destruction of a number of small shade trees on Summit avenue some time ago. The evidence produced yesterday was damaging and the defendant was bound over to court in a justified bond of $100. He knew that he could not give this he decided to try leg bail. He seized the first possible chance and before the officers had time to turn, was running up North Elm street at a 2:40 gait. Sheriff Gilmer was standing near and took the sheriff in the chase. Yelling, "Catch him," at every breath, as he ran, the sheriff followed the escaped man up the street. When he reached Mrs. Wright's Osment scaled the fence and took a short cut for Greene street. A Mr. Cox had been attracted by Sheriff Gilmer's cries and when Osment scaled another fence, almost without touching it, and landed in Greene street, Mr. Cox met him and pushed him so closely that the fugitive was forced into the gangway at the Farmers' warehouse. At the end of this he stepped through a hole in a bridge and was caught. He was completely out of breath and could not have run much further, but his chasers were almost in the same fix.

The prisoner was taken to jail where he will be kept until court, if he can't give bond. At the trial yesterday another man, who now lives in Graham, was implicated. Constable Scott went to Graham last night and brought him back a prisoner this morning. His name is Goley. He will be tried Monday.

Mr. Cone's reward is $100 and not fifty as stated in yesterday's paper. Adams and Douglas are conducting the prosecution in the cases.

"NOT GUILTY," JURY'S VERDICT
Rendered at 8:30 Last Night in The King-Saunders Trial.

The trial of William M. King, charged with the murder of William P. Saunders, was ended at 8:30 o'clock last night when the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty." The jury was out fifty-five minutes. The first vote showed nine for acquittal and three undecided. After several minutes, discussion the second vote was taken when all twelve were for acquittal.

The case has occupied the time of federal court for two days. The taking of testimony was concluded at 1 o'clock yesterday and the argument began shortly after the opening of court at 3 o'clock. Reuben D. Reid opened the argument for the prosecution, making a good speech of forty-five minutes. He was followed by Thomas Settle who made a strong appeal for the defendant. He spoke for forty minutes and was followed by C. Watson, also for the defense. Mr. Watson spoke for an hour and ten minutes, making an interesting and convincing speech. R. B. Glenn, for the prosecution, made the closing speech, reviewing the evidence and presenting it in the best possible way for his side.

Judge Purnell's charge to the jury was surprisingly short. He merely gave the sense of the law regarding murder in the first and second degrees and manslaughter, occupying not more than five minutes.

That King has numerous friends who were convinced that the killing was justifiable was attested by an applause when the verdict was announced.

IT WAS "A BREEZY TIME"

When Thirty-Three Prisoners Were Vaccinated Yesterday.

There was a warm time in jail yesterday when Dr. Ledbetter called to vaccinate the new prisoners. There were thirty-three who had not yet been performed on, most of them mountaineers, and the wall they raised when the object of the physician's visit was made known was a caution. Jailer Rees and Dr. Ledbetter went into the hall at 10 o'clock and at once began vaccinating the prisoners, bringing them out of the cells one at a time. Some of the moonshining mountaineers began cursing and served notice, the doctor and jailer would have to call in some help. As Jailer Rees had an ample supply of handcuffs and shackles, however, he showed no anxiety about help and the boisterous and sulky distillers of corn probably noticed this for when their turn came they were vaccinated and there was no violence. The work of applying the cruel virus was finished at 2 o'clock and the way thirty-three arms will hurt about a week from now will be "A. P."

INCENDIARISM SUSPECTED.
Police Believe the Andrews Mansion Was Fired for Revenge.

A GAME FIGHT BEING PUT UP

By Hegelman, Cox and Cartwright.
Skelton Badly Crippled—Skelly Edwards Dropped Out.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, April 8—The police have reason to believe that the Andrews mansion was fired by some one in a spirit of revenge. Captain Donohue has three letters, one addressed to Mrs. Andrews, one to St. John and one to Mrs. Mary Flanagan, a servant, all of a threatening nature. Thursday night a small fire started in a sloop connected with the house by Mary Flanagan stepping upon some matches that had been thrown there.

MAKING A GAME FIGHT.

New York, April 8—Hegelman, Cox and Cartwright are each making a game fight for the honors in the twenty-four hours. Skelton was so badly crippled by a fall this morning that he was obliged to quit. Skelly Edwards fainted on the track and dropped out. The score on the first ten hours is as follows: Hegelman, 61, 9 laps; Cox, 60, 11 laps; Cartwright, 60, 1 lap. Remainder under 60 miles.

CARTWRIGHT WITHDRAWS.

New York, April 8—Cartwright withdrew from the race at 9:50 this morning, claiming that his score was not being correctly kept. No records have been broken so far and experts figure that none will be broken.

AT THE GRAND.

Those who attended the performance of Rip Van Winkle, at the Grand last evening, by Samuel W. Glenn assisted by Dodson & Ring's Company of players, were treated to a genuine surprise. It has been so long assumed that no one but Joseph Jefferson could do justice to the part of Rip, that Mr. Glenn's thoroughly artistic and sympathetic portrayal of the character was a revelation to many. The delicate pathos and subtle humor of the lines lost nothing in his hands. He is a polished actor of the old school and is especially great in the awakening scene and in characterization of Rip as the broken, tenderhearted old man, with just enough of the sparkling, ne'er-do-well of his youth remaining to allow him to appreciate the humor of his strange condition.

Of the members of the company the acting of the part of Derrick von Slaus by William H. Boke and of Gertrude, Rip's wife, by Josie Granger were especially well done. The acting and dancing of the Rooney children, Josie and Julia, was remarkably clever. Their graceful dancing received the endorsement of several bursts of well earned applause.

Taken as a whole it was a refined, artistic performance and merited the appreciative reception it was accorded. The play will be repeated tonight—Daily Citizen, Asheville, N. C., Jan. 20th.

BROCKMANN ORCHESTRA CONCERT.

Many of our people have heard Mrs. P. P. Claxton and Misses Lola Carraway and Nannie Wood in West Methodist church choir, and will no doubt be pleased to know that they have consented to take part in the Brockmann Orchestra Concert to be given at the Academy next Thursday night the 13th.

Mrs. Claxton will sing one of her beautiful solos and Misses Carraway and Wood have promised one of their sweetest duets.

These ladies have voices of unusual excellence and will add much to the already interesting and varied program.

People who love good music will not be disappointed. Thursday, April 13th. General admission, 35c; reserved seats, 50c. Let's all go and enjoy ourselves.

SATURDAY, APRIL 8, 1879.

Pierre Loti threatens to go on a hunt for the north pole. This would be one of the easiest ways to get rid of Pierre. Let him go.

Prominent republicans in North Carolina are declaring that the Supreme Court will declare the "grandfather clause" of franchise amendment to be unconstitutional.

A problem for religious expansionists: Which is the more depraved specimen of humanity—the "savage" Filipino, godless and struggling for liberty, or the "Christian" soldier who comes with his profanity and bullets and shoots "religion" into the "savage."

Mr. J. P. Caldwell, the editor of the Charlotte Observer, is severely sick at his mother's home in Statesville. We learned of it with sympathy and regret, and hope that his masterly pen—always strong, generally caustic, sometimes elegant, always interesting—may resume its sway.

The three new battleships recently provided for by congress have been named by President McKinley—"Pennsylvania," "Vermont," and "Georgia." The imperial policy of the government will necessitate the creation of swarms of these engines of destruction, and soon the names of all the states will have been exhausted, but then there'll be our two thousand islands of the Pacific after which we may call a few of the ships, we suppose.

The First North Carolina regiment will be mustered out at Savannah on the 20th inst. Its band will then make a concert tour of North Carolina. The boys will visit every prominent town in the state that will promise them free entertainment and a low rate at the opera house. We hope they will be invited to Greensboro, as it would no doubt be a great pleasure to many of our people to see and hear the band that was first to play the "Star Spangled Banner," etc., through Havana.

A warship is an expensive machine, even after it is built and abreast the waves. The cruiser Raleigh which is enroute home from the Philippines, and which, by the way, will pay a visit to North Carolina waters, probably at Wilmington, has a little scrubbing up and repairing to be done on her which is roughly estimated to cost a quarter of a million dollars, and she was comparatively unharmed in the Manila fight. But the Raleigh has well paid for herself. What her 6-inch shells did for the Austria and other ships of the Spanish fleet was a p.

It would be a wise movement if the old bachelors of Greensboro would organize themselves and pass resolutions calling upon their representatives to see that Roberts of Utah does not obtain his seat in congress next December, which would be such an encouragement to polygamy as might be a menace to the future connubiality of the wifeless set. And the co-operation of the old maids—whose sympathy would no doubt be with them—might be secured in a combined movement for a writ of ejection against this man who has three living wives at home.

Governor Russell has accepted an invitation to deliver an address before the northern business men's meeting at Southern Pines (April 17 to 22d). His subject will be "The Advantages that North Carolina Presents for Investment of Capital in Developing her Resources." Presumably the Governor has changed his mind in regard to the danger he apprehended to the industrial welfare of the state from the democrats, when in public political speeches at Winston and other places in 1866 he made the statement that he would rather try to keep cool with a palm-leaf fan in hades in August than to induce capital to invest in the resources of North Carolina under a democratic administration.

Shoes Shoes

The Prowler came into the office yesterday and handed us the following piece of verse:

Just on mere pleasure bent,
'Twas at an hour when Federal court
had broke,

I met a man who gazed at me

As if he would inquire

Some information of his whereabouts.

"Have you seen Bill?" he said to me,

Then quickly turned away

To dodge the silent coming of a bike

That passed along its rightful way—

The center of the street—

My friend seemed pleased that he was not destroyed.

"Just tell him that you see me

If you see him," said the man,

"Him and all the other crowd I know,

This poor town's the hardest place

To find a fel you know

That I have struck since Turkey Trot

I left."

"What is your name?" I asked the man

As hard as his orbs he strained

To peer into the window of a store

The wind blew thro' his whiskers as

He said, "I came from Stokes,

And dardened if I can find the Bill I know."

The rain fell in his nostrils as

In rustic awe he gazed

Upon a telephone pole's giddy height,

Then making sure the pavement was

Not slick as it appeared,

He moved around the corner out of sight.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. Was taken with a bad cold which settled or my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to God, and was determined to live. I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured and thank God, has saved and now a well man. I am really recovered. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1. Guaranteed or price refunded.

Sale of Land Under Mortgage.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Read McDuffie's penny ad. P. H. Hanes, of Winston, was at the Benbow this morning.

For Rip Van Winkle reserved seats only 50 cents at John B. Farris' drug store.

Vance Scott, of Mebane, is spending the afternoon in the city. He is returning home from a business trip in the western part of the state.

Rev. L. Johnson left at noon for Kernersville, where he will speak to night on missions. He will return in time to fill his appointments tomorrow.

Mrs. H. T. Hines, who has been spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Andrews, on Ashe street, returned to her home in Baltimore last night.

A meeting of the joint executive committee of the Ladies Aid Society and Albor Guild of St. Barnabas church, is called Monday next at 4 p. m., at the residence of Dr. Wilson on Church street.

The Southern Loan and Trust Company advertise today dwelling, and a building suitable for manufacturing purposes for rent. Applications are wanted for loans, real estate is offered for sale.

Mr. C. C. Wood and family, composed of wife and two daughters, have arrived and are staying at Mrs. Wood's, opposite postoffice. They will make Greensboro their future home, having purchased a farm near the city.

Now, that is to say, instantaneously, at the present writing, without waits, J. M. Hendrix & Co. have ready for your inspection, 228 pairs of the prettiest dress shoes for ladies, misses and children ever shown in the city. See them in this paper.

Mr. W. D. McAdoo, after developing his soapstone mountain in Chatam county, will offer the property for sale, he tells us. When his little daughter returns from Baltimore he will confine his interests more to Greensboro. For this as well as various other reasons he has decided to sell the Chatam property.

In federal court yesterday J. L. Casper et alis submitted to the charge of using the walls for fraudulent purposes. The indictment was against the Union Watch Company, of Winston, and judgment was suspended on payment of costs, on all the stockholders except Mr. Casper, who was fined $500. This is the maximum fine. Judge W. P. Bynum Jr., represented the defendant.

No Court This Afternoon.

Judge Purnell adjourned court for today at one o'clock and there is no court this afternoon. About seventy-five witnesses who have been here all the week left on the Winston train this morning for their homes in Forsyth, Wilkes and Stokes counties. Many of them have been dismissed and some will have to return next week.

Rip Van Winkle.

Others have tried to personate Rip of old but there is only one person who can play this role and that man is Sam W. Glenn. See him at the opera house next Wednesday night. Tickets now on sale at Fariss' drug-store.
